

NOT TO MISS...

Leonardtwn Winery, Wharf and Water Trail

A little known secret hidden along the McIntosh Run in Leonardtown is the Port of Leonardtown Public Park. This developing passive park and winery is the launch point of a nearly three mile serene canoe/kayak trail. As you wind through this wooded trail you will be amazed by the peaceful tranquility.

Leonardtwn Walking Tour

Tour cultural sites - old and new - on this self-guided tour of Leonardtown's history, heritage, and architecture. Traces of history can be found throughout the landscape, commercial buildings, churches, and residences. Leonardtown has a wealth of sights and experiences to educate and entertain.

Maryland Municipal League

Geocache Trail

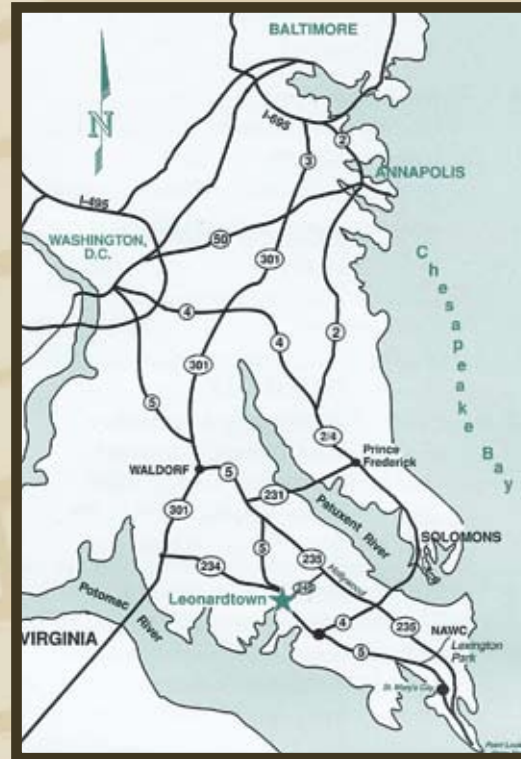

Leonardtwn is proud to participate in the Maryland Municipal League Geocache Trail. Geocaching is a fun and exciting way to learn about the region and experience amazing locations you might not otherwise visit. For a complete list of participating visitor centers visit the MML web site at <http://www.mdmunicipal.org>.

LOCATION MAP

FROM BALTIMORE - 90 MILES
FROM WASHINGTON - 50 MILES
FROM WALDORF - 30 MILES
FROM ANNAPOLIS - 70 MILES

DISCOVER WHAT'S NEW IN HISTORIC LEONARDTOWN.

For More Information:

Phone: 301.475.9791 Fax: 301.475.5350

Email: Leonardtwn.Commissioners@verizon.net

Visit Us on the Web:

<http://leonardtwn.somd.com>

Commissioners of Leonardtown
41660 Courthouse Drive, P.O. Box 1
Leonardtwn, Maryland 20650

HISTORIC Leonardtwn

...A MOST
CONVENIENT PLACE

LIVE... WORK... PLAY...

Wait till you see what's new in one of Maryland's oldest towns. Leonardtown has been touted "A most convenient place" since 1708 when St. Mary's County citizens petitioned the Governor's Council and Assembly to establish the town. Rich in history, Leonardtown celebrated its 300th birthday in 2008. For three centuries Leonardtown has been the County Seat of St. Mary's County as well as the center for commerce and social activity. The Courthouse today stands on the original 1708 site of the first Courthouse. Overlooking Breton Bay stands Tudor Hall mansion, home to the St. Mary's County Historical Society.

Leonardtown is host to family oriented events year round. On the First Friday of each month, historic Leonardtown's art galleries, restaurants, cafes, gift shops, antique shops, bookstores, etc. open their doors to showcase local artists and/or serve specials at their establishments. Join one of our fun filled events soon to see why thousands of people flock to Leonardtown for a unique hometown experience.

If there is a wedding or special event in your future consider an all inclusive Leonardtown event. Leonardtown offers florists, restaurants, catering, lodging, transportation, printing and beautiful ceremony sites.

An active business association is an important key to Leonardtown's revitalization.

"I feel fortunate that my business is in town. I enjoy the fact that I am able to walk to the post office, the bank, and other businesses to do my errands, both personal and professional. Working in downtown Leonardtown has allowed me to experience a great sense of community."

- Valerie, Owner, The Good Earth Natural Foods Company

"As far as living in Leonardtown goes, I have never had to get in my car to go to work, pick up my dry cleaning, or make a deposit at the bank. I can meet up with friends to play a game of ultimate frisbee, get some food or coffee, and make it to church without ever driving."

- Hayden, Resident

Living and working in downtown Leonardtown puts you close to all of your daily needs. The College of Southern Maryland, Leonardtown Campus and St. Mary's Hospital are conveniently located in Leonardtown.

Browse the new shops, galleries, eateries, lodging and a brand new waterfront park. Whether you are shopping, dining, or exploring come discover a new view of Historic Leonardtown.