

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, on the 27th day of April, 1967, Barnard I. Smith was called to his eternal reward by his Creator, and,

WHEREAS, for many, many years a substantial part of his energy, knowledge and good judgment was devoted willingly and unselfishly to the service of the Town of Leonardtown in the development, enlargement, upkeep and maintenance of the Town's public water and sewage works, facilities and services for the comfort and welfare of its citizens and the betterment of the Town, and,

WHEREAS, because of his death, the loss of his services and wise counsel is now, and shall hereafter be, greatly felt and lamented.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMISSIONERS OF LEONARDTOWN, this 2nd day of May, 1967, that the death of Barnard I. Smith is considered to be a great loss to them and to the citizenry of the Town of Leonardtown and that they wish, by this means, to express their deep appreciation for the services and counsel he so willingly gave to the Town of Leonardtown for its welfare, betterment and development.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this Resolution be incorporated in the Minutes of the Commissioners of Leonardtown, and that a copy hereof be sent to Mr. Smith's widow and two daughters and that this Resolution be published in the local press.
