

Resolution

Whereas, Joseph H. Henderson, Jr. departed this life on the 22nd day of November, 1976, and,

Whereas, throughout his life Joseph H. Henderson, Jr. was greatly interested in the affairs of the Town of Leonardtown and in the welfare of its citizens, and,

Whereas, for many years his time, energy, business knowledge, good judgment and sound advice were given willingly, freely and unselfishly by him for the development, promotion, growth and betterment of Leonardtown and for the well being and comfort of its citizens, and,

Whereas, because of his death, the loss of his services and wise counsel to the Town and to its people are now, and shall hereafter be, greatly felt.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the Commissioners of Leonardtown, this 22nd day of February, 1982, that the death of Joseph H. Henderson, Jr. is considered to be a great loss to them and to the citizenry of the Town of Leonardtown, and that they wish, on behalf of the Town's citizens, by this Resolution, to express deep appreciation for the service and counsel he so willingly gave to Leonardtown for its welfare, betterment and development and to extend to his family sincere condolences.

Be It Further Resolved that this Resolution be spread upon the minutes of the Commissioners of Leonardtown, that a copy hereof be sent to Mr. Henderson's widow and children.
