

PRIVACY POLICY, DISCLAIMER, AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

This website is made available to you by the Town of Leonardtown (the “Town”) and The Commissioners of Leonardtown (the “Commissioners”) to facilitate access to and payment of your Town utility bills. By accessing this website, you accept and agreed to the terms set forth herein and proceed at your own risk.

When you make a payment online, you will be required to provide certain personal information, such as an account number, credit card number, billing name, and billing address. This personal information is necessary to authenticate your payment, minimize the potential for account fraud, and process your payment in a timely fashion. Please be advised that your personal information will not be sold to or shared with others, and the Town does not permanently store any account information on its servers. Certain information is automatically tracked and collected when you access this website, including your IP address, domain server, type of computer, and type of web browser. This data is anonymous and is used solely to ensure and improve the security and efficiency of the service provided.

Your personal information is not subject to disclosure, examination, or inspection, and will be kept private and not shared with third parties, except and unless: (1) you have given the Town express authorization to do so; (2) it is subject to disclosure, examination, or inspection under applicable laws regarding public information, e.g., the Maryland Public Information Act; (3) such disclosure, examination, or inspection is required to comply with a court order or other law, to protect the Town’s rights, or otherwise enforce this Privacy Policy and these Terms of Use.

The Town makes every effort to ensure that the information displayed on this website is accurate, reliable, and up-to-date; however, it cannot guarantee the absolute accuracy of any information displayed at any given time. This website may contain links to other websites. The Town does not endorse the content or services provided on linked websites, and once you connect to a linked website, you are subject to any terms and conditions of that website. The Town makes no representations as to the accuracy or completeness of any information found on this website or any websites linked thereto. Should you require confirmation or verification of any information displayed on this website or any websites linked thereto, it is your responsibility to contact the primary source of the information.

Under no circumstances will the Town or The Commissioners of Leonardtown be liable for any losses, damages, or injuries of any kind whatsoever arising from the display, use, inability to use, access to, results of, or unauthorized use of any information or content found on this website or any website linked thereto.

The Commissioners reserve the right to change the terms and conditions of this Privacy Policy, Disclaimer, and Limitation of Liability from time to time, without notice. Any such changes will become effective upon posting on this website.
